Urban

The Urban Collection: Urban landscapes and iconic spots.

“The noise, smell, structures, iconic places and corners of the cities around the world, that transport our souls across and makes us long that brief and unreal parallel life that travelling is.”

Alex Aldaco (México, 1970) is the only son of the renowned Mexican Architect Marco Aldaco (Lauded as "Mexico's most revered architect" -Robb Report, Summer 2005- and member of Architectural Digest's "AD 100 Club") and his talented wife, the designer Marta Rico.

Growing as an only child in an outstanding artistic environment and traveling around the world with his parents, Alex sensibility and naturally gifted eye found his passion at an early age behind a camera, capturing beauty where every one else sees nothing.

Alex is also an Nature's advocate and a passionate Animal Protectionist. One of his goals is that his work favors incremental change in pursuit of non-human animal and nature's interests.
